Amid the rich landscape of the Zambezi National Park, dotted with riverine forests and elephant trails, is the Victoria Falls Safari Spa, nestled in peaceful indigenous woodland, rich in birdlife, and with the occasional warthog or bushbuck passing by.

Reminiscent of an African safari tented camp, Victoria Falls' largest and first purpose-built spa features manicure and pedicure stations, three stand-alone treatment rooms (one double and two singles), a hair and make-up studio, a splash pool with relaxation decks and a café offering healthy food and beverage options.
